LA-Z-BOY CONTRACT EXPANDS; NOW OFFERS 42 OFFICE SEATING GROUPS, TEN COLLECTIONS FOR LOBBIES AND LOUNGES

CHICAGO, IL – With the introduction of its new lobby/lounge seating collection and its new group of wood & upholstered guest seating for NeoCon®, La-Z-Boy Contract Furniture now offers an impressive 42 office seating series and ten seating groups for lobbies and lounges.

New for NeoCon '07 is the stylish Dialogue, a handsome lobby/lounge collection with a distinctive club chair, loveseat, and sofa that optimizes both comfort and versatility. The fully upholstered Dialogue offers clean lines and soft curves. Executed in a sleek, contemporary style, this collection has been designed to provide looks and comfort to any corporate lobby or executive lounge.

Also new for 2007 is the strikingly sleek Padova & Navora wood guest chairs. Both the Padova and Navora offer a traditional look executed with a wood frame with transitional design elements, making these chairs suitable for a large variety of settings.

The introductions are part of a growing number of new seating and table solutions which can be previewed during NeoCon June 11 - 13 at the La-Z-Boy Contract Furniture Showroom at The Merchandise Mart, 10-141.

Through, La-Z-Boy Healthcare, the company introduced a number of new products, including a new recliner series, a new bariatric chair and a new sleep chair—which together will comprise an attractive and complete patient room setting.

La-Z-Boy Contract's Healthcare products provide the comforts of home within health care environments. They are industry leaders with the largest market share of patient room recliners.

La-Z-Boy Contract was started in 1971 to market La-Z-Boy's reclining office chair. The success of that product spurred development of multi-functional office chair lines. La-Z-Boy Contract now offers perfect solutions for almost any task, operational, executive, conference and lobby/lounge application. Each product offers optimal function and quality craftsmanship at highly competitive prices. These product lines are comprehensive and cover both small and large office environment applications as well as home office settings.
